++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A dull and occasionally wet day.

Today:
A dull, cloudy day with occasional rain, this turning heavy at times, particularly across Dumfries and Galloway. Best of any limited brighter spells around the east coast. South to southwest winds occasionally freshening around coasts. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud and rain clearing eastwards during the evening, leaving clear spells and only a few isolated and light showers, these largely restricted to areas west of M74. Southwest winds strengthening. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:
Majority dry and bright for the morning. Cloud building northwards into Central Belt for the afternoon, bringing the risk of some showery rain. Windy. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Cold snap Thursday, early Friday, with scattered showers, wintry over hills, and strong north to northwest winds. Drier late Friday. Milder Saturday as winds back southwest, pushing rainbands across area.
